Lakeway Civic Corporation Meet the Candidates Forum

Thursday, April 12

7 p.m.

Lakeway Activity Center, 105 Cross Creek

The City of Lakeway will livestream the Lakeway Civic Corporation Meet the Candidate Forum at 7 p.m. April 12 that will feature Lakeway mayoral and City Council candidates. LCC will host the forum at Lakeway Activity Center, 105 Cross Creek. It is free and open to the public. If you are unable to attend, you may watch the forum live or later on the city's website at www.lakeway-tx.gov/videos. Three candidates are competing for the mayor's seat on Lakeway City Council and six candidates are vying for two City Council seats in a general election May 5. The candidate who earns the most votes in the mayor's race will be elected to office for a three-year term. The top two council candidates will be elected to office for a three-year term. Early voting is April 23-May 1. The city also will conduct a special election May 5 to put seven charter amendments propositions before voters. Lakeway Civic Corporation is a nonprofit organization that is unaffiliated with the City of Lakeway.

Lakeway Heritage Trail Tour

Saturday, April 21

9:15 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 1:15 p.m.

Lakeway Heritage Center, 963 Lohmans Crossing

Lakeway's past will spring to life on the city's next Heritage Trail Tour on April 21. The Saturday schedule will give families with school age children the opportunity to visit and learn about our city's historical sites. The free bus tours are scheduled to leave at 9:15 a.m., 11:15 a.m. and 1:15 p.m. from the Lakeway Heritage Center, 963 Lohmans Crossing. Lakeway Heritage Commission members will guide each tour that lasts about one hour and 15 minutes. The first Heritage Trail Tour celebrated Lakeway's Golden Anniversary in 2013, and since then docents have informed and entertained more than 700 participants with facts and humorous anecdotes from the history of Lakeway and Lake Travis area. Admission is free for the Heritage Trail Tour, but bus seating is limited and reservations are required. Reserve a seat on the Heritage Tour now by calling the Lakeway Heritage Center at 512-608-9533 or emailing history@lakeway-tx.gov. Be sure to include name, phone number and email address.

Nona Maxwell art exhibit

Tuesday, April 10 through Tuesday, May 22

8 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays

Lakeway City Hall, 1102 Lohmans Crossing

Nona Maxwell will display her paintings from Tuesday, April 10, through Tuesday, May 22, at the Lakeway City Hall Art Gallery, 1102 Lohmans Crossing. The free exhibit may be viewed during regular City Hall office hours of 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Maxwell is a native Texan and a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin. Her focus was on art at West Texas State University and the University of Arizona, although she received a bachelor of science degree in education with a minor in art from UT. She enjoyed a career as an elementary school teacher, but retirement from the classroom allowed a renewed focus on art. Maxwell has exhibited her work in shows in Tucson, Arizona and in galleries in Boerne, Texas, and Fredericksburg, Texas. She enjoyed her time with the Lakeway Painters at the Lakeway Activity Center. She has relocated to the Spicewood area and looks forward to new friendships and new challenges.
